

ROBERT E. HOWARD EXPANSION PACK

The politics of the high courts are elegant, shadowy, and subtle. Not so in the outlying duchies. Rival dukes contend for unclaimed lands far from the king's reach, and possession is the law in these lands. Use your forces to adapt to your opponent's strategies, capturing enemy troops, before you lose your opportunity to seize these lands for your good.

In The Duke, players move their troops (tiles) around the board and flip them over after each move. Each tile's side shows a different movement pattern. If you end your movement in a square occupied by an opponent's tile, you capture that tile. Capture your opponent's Duke to win!

ROBERT E. HOWARD EXPANSION PACK RULES

These tiles replace the following tiles in the game: Conan = Champion; Kull = Wizard; Agnes = Ranger; Solomon Kane = Priest.

There are two ways to incorporate these tiles into the rules (both players should agree which rule they'll use before the start of play).

1. Players randomly determine who will choose first. The first player selects one of the four tiles from this expansion pack. The second player selects the next tile, then the first player selects the next tile and finally the second player selects the last tile. Both players remove the tiles corresponding to the tiles they've chosen (as noted above), place the new tiles in their bags and the game proceeds as normal.

2. For a more challenging game, players lay the four tiles from this expansion pack on the side of the board, then start a standard game. Whenever a player pulls one of the four tiles noted above, they can choose at that moment to replace the drawn tile with the appropriate tile from this expansion pack. If the player decides not to replace the tile, he cannot replace the tile at any future time. Yes, this means a single player could have all four tiles on their side.

PRINT AND PLAY

As with the The Duke Print & Play, simply print out the page, cut out the tiles, fold them and paste/tape the front and back together.
