MSRP: $14.99
Pages: 56 [softcover]
Catalog #: 26405
Release: Q2 2011

Compatibility: Requires Shadowrun, Twentieth Anniversary Edition; the second in a new line of sourcebooks that combines setting, plot, and gear information in one book to give players and gamemasters a whole host of new options to use in their campaign.

Selling Points:

- Begins a new plot strand that will culminate in a campaign book that reveals more about the Horizon Corporation than has ever been shown before.
- Involves players in the glamorous entertainment industry in multiple ways, including guarding precious materials on a movie set and investigating the murder of music star.
- Takes players to Los Angeles and Tijuana as they look for explanations of mysterious deaths—and odd messages that keep popping up on their commlinks.
- Allows players to experience the popularity-driven atmosphere of Los Angeles and experience social networking the Shadowrun way.
- Can be played alone or as the introduction to the Horizon series, which will have ramifications in the ongoing Shadowrun plotline.
- Provides complete non-player character statistics, player handouts, and all other information needed to let players dive into the adventure immediately.

Target Market:

- Current Shadowrun gamemasters.
- Shadowrun fans interested in keeping up with the game world's always-developing plotline.
- Fans of other role-playing games interested in using plot points from the Horizon plotline for their own games.

Up-Sells & Cross-Sells:

- Corporate Guide [CAT26221]
- Corporate Enclaves [CAT26201]
- Attitude [CAT26103]
